

Recognise industry contribution

ADNA is calling for nominations for:

Sun Pharma Outstanding Contribution by an ADNA Committee Member - Annual Award $2000

To recognise the dedication of an individual ADNA committee member past or present for their contribution to support the organisation in achievement of their goals. Nominations can be made by any ADNA member and will be adjudicated by the executive committee. Nomination should give a brief outline of the contribution and the impact it has on advancing the goals of ADNA. The award funds are to be used for education/training or for research and can include registrations, travel and accommodation or dermatological meetings and congresses.

Nominations Close: May 5th 2023
